Introduction

Consider these verses about do unto others...

Lev 18:17-18 | YHVH says to Moses and Israel “thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy self”

¹⁷ Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbor, and not suffer sin upon him. ¹⁸ Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: I am YHVH.

Mat 7:12 | Messiah teaches from Torah the Golden Rule

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets ^[Luk 6:31]

Gal 5:13-15 | Paul says the fulfilling the Torah is following the Golden Rule

¹³ For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. ¹⁴ For all the law is fulfilled ^[nomos Torah] in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. ¹⁵ But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

In Galatians Paul speaks boldly regarding “Love thy neighbor as thyself” by summarizing it to mean “the law is fulfilled^A”. We think of these things in an intra-generational construct, but does is this pattern applicable inter-generationally? I say yes, why not.

The leftists will go out of their way to point out that some of the founding fathers owned slaves. They go on to say that this is bad and we should judge them accordingly. Slavery is bad because it's contrary to the Declaration of Independence and the Torah a couple of generations acted in righteousness and fixed this even going to war over it. I could imagine that these founding fathers would note the irony by pointing out that they,

^A G4137: Mat 5:17-20 Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. G4137 18
For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. G1096 and the rest of America who have followed leftist ideology, have enslaved themselves by making them slaves to socialism. The question is, will modern day America make her exodus from the slavery she put herself in?
