Introduction

There is a powerful SAT and use of the word Moshiach.

ToDo: add more comments like, for sure, two house.

^D Gen 10:8-10 KJV 8 And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth. 9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. 10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

Standalone Aleph Tav Micah 5:1 [4:14] †

"...upon the cheek Aleph Tav the judge of Israel."

Mic 5:1 KJV Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite H5221 (H853) the judge of Israel with a rod shebet †† upon the cheek. †††

† Note, Mal 5 in the Hebrew has one less verse than in the English because in the Hebrew, there is an extra verse in the previous chapter [Mic 4:14 OJB], but in the KJV, the last verse of Mic 4 is 13 [Mic 4:13]. So it's confusing what's the Hebrew verse number that has the Standalone Aleph Tav.

†† See "Word-Study-H7626-shebet-Gen 49-10-The-scepter-shall-not-depart-from-Judah-until-Shiloh-come", article #647 and "Word-Study-H4294-matth-rod-branch-tribe-and-H7626-shevet-staff-sceptre-tribe", article #665, Word-Study-H8199-shaphat-Judge-and-H4941-mishpat-judgment, article #397.

††† This may have no relevance whatsoever, but this is what I thought of Mat 5:39 KJV But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.
