. ⁷ And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way. ⁸ And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole ^c chayah.

Strong's Concordance Notations – X (Multiplication)

<http://www.spiritandtruth.org/questions/215.htm?x=x>

In Strong's entries, “X” denotes “multiplication” and “+” (plus) denotes addition to form a phrase.

Multiplication

X (multiplication): denotes a rendering in the [text] that results from an idiom peculiar to the original language "X" is used to describe situations where the word in question appears with another word or in a repeated phrase which multiplies the original meaning of the associated word. For example, in Acts 5:42, the word for all/every (pas, Strong's G3956) appears with the word for "day" (hemera) resulting in the idea of "every day" or "each day" which results in the English translation "daily." Hence, the Strong's entry "X daily" means that when pas is combined with the word for "day" it multiplies the idea of "day" to denote "daily" (over and over, day by day).
